From Saturday August 19, to Tuesday August 22, 1780.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of August, 1780,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th Day of October, 1776, an Embargo was laid upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden in the Ports of Great Britain with Black Cattle and Hogs, Beef, Pork, Butter and Cheese, or any Sort of Provisions, (except Fish, Corn or Grain of any Kind, or Pulse,) which Embargo hath in many Respects been taken off under certain Restrictions: And whereas it is thought proper that the said recited Order of the 25th Day of October, 1776, be no longer continued; but nevertheless it is requisite for the Public Safety, in the present Critical Conjuncture of Affairs, to prevent the Exportation of Provisions: It is therefore hereby ordered by His Majesty in Council, that an Embargo be forthwith laid upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden in the Ports of Great Britain with Black Cattle and Hogs, Beef, Pork, Butter and Cheese, or any Sort of Provisions, (except Fish, Corn or Grain of any Kind, or Pulse,) and that the said Embargo do continue and remain upon such Ships and Vessels till further Order; but it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to any Town, Port or Place within the Colonies of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, the Three Lower Counties on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, in Pursuance of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to allow the Exportation of Provisions, Goods, Wares and Merchandize, from Great Britain to certain Towns, Ports or Places in North America, which are or may be under the Protection of His Majesty's Arms, and from such Towns, Ports or Places, to Great Britain and other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions;" and it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to any other of His Majesty's Colonies in North America, or to any of His Majesty's West India Islands, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or the Island of Saint Helena; provided that the Merchant Exporter of such Provisions do make Oath, on the Entry thereof, of the due Destination of the same to the Port for which they shall be so entered and cleared out as aforesaid, and do give Security by Bond to the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port at which such Vessel shall enter and clear out, with Two able and sufficient Sureties, (of whom the Master of the said Vessel shall be One,) to be approved of by the principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs there, in Treble the Value of such Provisions, for such Ship or Vessel proceeding to and delivering such Provisions at such Port for which such Provisions shall be entered and cleared out; and to produce, within Eighteen Months from the Date of such Bond, from the proper Officers of the Customs of such Port, Certificates of such Provisions having been there delivered; and it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or the Islands thereto belonging, or the Isle of Man, or to any of the Ports of Europe, (except the Ports belonging to France or Spain,) or Coastwise; provided that the Merchant Exporter of such Provisions, (except Cheese carried Coastwise from any of the Ports of this Kingdom, and Butter and Bacon carried Coastwise from the Port of London,) do make Oath on the Entry thereof of the due Destination of the same to the Port for which they shall be entered and cleared out, and do give Security, by Bond, to the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port at which such Vessel shall enter and clear out, with Two able and sufficient Sureties, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be One,) to be approved of by the principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs there, in Treble the Value of such Provisions, that the same shall be landed at the Port for which such Provisions shall be entered and cleared out, and to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bonds, Certificates from the proper Officers of the Customs at such Port of such Provisions having been there delivered; and it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Cheese Coastwise from any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or carrying Butter and Bacon Coastwise from the Port of London; but that such Ships and Vessels be permitted to pursue their respective Coasting Voyages under the usual Coasting Bond; nor to any Ships or Vessels carrying Sheep or other live Cattle, (Horses and Lambs excepted) between the Port of Cowes in the Isle of Wight and the Ports of Southampton and Portsmouth, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ship or Vessel actually retained in His Majesty's Service, nor to any Ship or Vessel which shall be laden by the especial Order and under the Directions of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, with any Kind of Provisions for the Use of His Majesty's Fleets or Armies; and it is ordered, that no Bonds or Securities, hereby directed to be given, shall shall be delivered up, but upon the Production of the Certificates required, or by Order from his Majesty, or his Privy Council; and upon Failure of the Certificates being produced within the respective Times herein before limited, the Commissioners of the Customs are to transmit an exact Account thereof to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in order to be laid before this Board. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions for carrying this Order into Execution as far to them shall respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th of August, 1780,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th of May last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this instant August: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, except in those Cases where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Use and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts, and of the Transports and Victualling Vessels employed in His Majesty's Service) His Majesty, by His several Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October, and of the 6th and 22d of November, 1775, of the 5th and 19th of February, and the 23d of August and 25th of September, 1776, of the 16th of April, the 13th of August, and the 3d and 10th of October, 1777, of the 19th of June, the 7th and 26th of August, and the 10th of September, 1778, and of the 17th of May last, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Restrictions mentioned in the said Orders: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the said 23d Day of this instant August, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, except in the Cases comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of

"Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.
